

January 10, 2020

Dear Valued Customer,

We would like to take a moment to inform you of some upcoming price adjustments that are being instituted by various manufacturers (suppliers). They have communicated to us that the global precious metal market has reached record highs, in particular, palladium and rhodium. Due to this ongoing increase and in conjunction with a spike in raw materials, operational expenses, fuel, and tariffs they have been forced to implement an annual price increase. In doing so, Team Allied Distribution has done its best to absorb some of these increases and help alleviate the impact.

Please note that these price adjustments vary per manufacturer and take effect per the schedule below. Please contact your Team Allied representative for full pricing information and further details. The list below does not include all manufacturers that will be instituting price adjustments. In the coming months, your Team Allied representative will inform you of all other adjustments as we obtain further information from other manufacturers.
